

2024 NDPCS Convention Highlights

Fargo, ND

Submitted by Tess Erickson Cain

The 35th Annual NDPCS Convention kicked off on Friday, June 7th, with live music from Rick Fiedler and a presentation by Linda Fiedler, 2024 convention chair, which highlighted the last 35 years of NDPCS.

On Saturday, June 8th, convention attendees boarded a charter bus and traveled to Wahpeton, ND. First stop: Richland County Historical Museum.

2024 NDPCS Convention Highlights Continued

Convention attendees explored the Rosemeade collection at Richland County Historical Museum.

Above: Bill and Linda Bakken posed for a photo in the museum.

Left: Brad Bird and Sharon Smith took a closer look at a display.

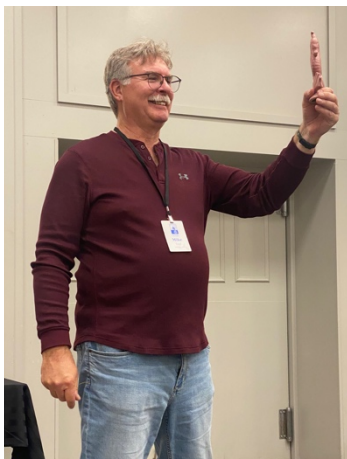

Below: Convention attendees gathered at Chahinkapa Park for a picnic after the museum visit.

2024 NDPCS Convention Highlights Continued

The Saturday evening program's highlight was a presentation by Sandy Short. Sandy shared slide photos of her collection along with stories behind the acquirement of some of her most prized items. We were all entertained by her impressive collection and the unique ladder architecture that was required for the slide projector.

Above Left: Linda Fiedler and Tara Holt received lifetime membership awards during the banquet on Saturday.
Above Right: Original NDPCS Charter Members Pictured (L to R) Quint Christman, Ann Christman, Eugene Peterson, Sandy Short, and Bob Barr
Left: NDPCS President Mike Kaul wrapped up his last convention as president. Thank you, Mike, for your many years of service!